IN BEAUTIFUL WESTCHESTER

COUNTRY HOMES IN AND AROUND MAMA-RONECK AND RYE.

WHERE NATURE, AIDED BY MAN, HAS PROVIDED IDEAL SITES FOR HOMES-THE AMERICAN

YACHT CLUB'S HOUSE-ATTRACTIONS

Connecticut border, in Westchester County, containing within its limits beautiful scenery, a fine water front on Long Island Sound, palatial homes, ar buildings and theat country houses, derives ame from the Indians. The Mamaronsek River ts name from the Indiana. used to flow to the Sound through steep and rocky banks, and where the town bridge now stands it over a ledge into the tidewater, and this caused the Indians to name the place Mamaroneck, which means "the place where the fresh water falls into the sail." The tract of land which extends about three miles along the Sound and back from the shore about four miles, and which forms the town, is naturally beautiful, and, on account of its un-dulations and natural drainage, its woods and streams and the fresh breezes which sweep over it from the sait waters which wash its shores, was early recognized as a desirable place of residence village, as an Indian settlement, has a rec far back as 16st, when John Richbell bought the on which the town stands from the Indians De Lancey family owned one of the three necks embraced in the Richbell purchase for so many years that it was called by many De Lancey Neck A small part of it is still in the possession of the family, but the greater part has passed into the hands of wealthy men, who have built country homes there and changed the paths and es to broad walks and perfect drives Edward L. De Lancey, in his history of the place, says that there was a contest over the ownership of the land in the reign of Charles II, and the value of the land in those days is shown by a document of land of which Mamaroneck is one, were sold for "22 coates, 160 fathom of wampum, 12 shirts, airs of stockings, 20 hands of powder, 12 barrs of lead, 2 firebooks, filiteene hoes, filiteen hatchets and three kettles. One-half to be paid about a month after date, and the other half next spring three items last mentioned in the contract should be equally divided. The boundaries of the town, as t was incorporated in 1788 are: New-Rochelle south, Long Island Sound on the east, the Maaroneck River on the north, and the town of attention long before millions of dollars were ex-pended in developing the town, the residents tel with pride that J. Fenimore Cooper had the East Neck in mind when he wrote his "Satanstoe." At that time, it was known as Long Beach, but Mr. Greacen, who bought the point from the De Lan-ceys, named it Orienta, and by that name it is still known. Since its first improvement at the hands of Mr. Greacen, the point has been steadily neautified. Its roads and lanes have been perfected nd in the shade of its dense groves. Broad, smooth lawns, ornamental hedges and massive portals on one side and the waters of the Sound on the other make these homes picturesque from any point of view, and it is only natural that the residents of this part of Westchester County should regard the point as the town's chief attraction. It is here that Henry M. Flagler built his fine villa, immediately opposite the Larchmont Yacht Club's house. Aside from its being a roomy, comfortable and luxurious house, the place has been improved by huge sea-walls, gardens, conservatories, boathouses and plers, owner has gained the thanks of all those who drive by allowing the public to use the well-tept roads within the inclosure.

The palace-like home of E. H. Weatherbee is also Orienta Point. Each of the many homes that have been built on the point, some hidden behind the foliage of the giant trees and others sur-rounded by carpet-like lawns, has its particular style, its own peculiar beauty, and these, with the fragrance of the woods and the fresh breezes from the Sound, make driving on the point a luxury the like of which few places offer.

Among the noteworthy homes on Orienta are the James T. Burnet place, now occupied by Mrs. K. M. Mabley; the F. L. Morrell place, T. J. Meighan's, A. M. McGregor's, John R. Hegeman's, the houses of W. G. Read and W. G. Read, Jr., the David Dudley Field house, Thomas Eldridge's, P. P. McGregor's, Thomas F. Oskes's Joseph B. B. McGregor's, Thomas F. Oakes's, Joseph Powell's Thomas L. Rushmore's and J. C. La ture of money, it is not the only place near Ma-maroneck which attracts attention. Oakhurst, on the east side of the harbor, is another residence part which is worthy of more than passing notice. graph," in a souvenir edition published Ancient elms and oaks line the road which leads ago, said that the "historian would be as embar-

THE OSBORN PLACE.

in store for the visitor to this part of the picturesque county. Tevior's Lane, rustic and country-like in its appearance, would lead no one to suspect the elegance, the architectural splendor which lies at its water end. It leads first to the large, old-fashioned, comfortable house of Alexander Taylor, then past the George M. Taylor place and the Horace Craighead home, now occupied by Mr. Bussing, and then over a causeway to lied ideal summer-nouse of Alexander Taylor, if, it would be sifficult to find a more charming view than that from the Taylor place The Saund, with its tiny, rocky islands in the forestound, the dazzlingly white yachts riding at anchor, small sail craft riding before the gentle, cooling breezes and in the distance Gien Cove and Sands Point. To the right the stately home of T. F. Oakes and the Weatherbee and Constable places. Then, on the other side, through the woods, glumpses of the U. D. Eddy place, now occupied by Mrs. Joseph Alexandre: Mrs. John Cushman's fine place and the Stephenson Towle house. After passing the causeway from the Taylor house to the main land the home of John T. White is passed, and on the extreme point of the Neck is the minsion built for the late Charles J. Osbern.

HOME OF ALEXANDER TAYLOR, JR., ON THE CAUSEWAY.

QUAKER RIDGE AND ITS MEETING-HOUSES. Quaker Ridge is one of the most beautiful eleabout two miles in ength and 250 feet above the level of the Sound, and of uniform altitude along the greater part of its length. At its highest point there stand two ancient Quaker meeting-houses, one of which was built in the last century. It stands in a natural park. When the Hicksite distribution of the place of the pl vision took place in the Society of Friends both factions claimed the title to the church property, proximity to New-York and its accessibility make healthfulness make it an ideal place for children, and its superior roads offer attractions to the

and to avoid litigation they divided the property, with Mamaroneck, and between the two places much for the place, but to show that it was a ing-house, and the Orthodox Friends built a new people whose carriages crowd the Rye station in

RYE BEACH AND BECK'S HOTEL

MAMARONECK A THRIVING TOWN

The inhabitants of Mamaroneck, in speaking of graph," in a souvenir edition published some years the village shops have a city art not in keeping with their right surroundings.

A good example of a city store in a country place is the lames of Fight store, in Rye.

Rye has four courches Christ Protestant Episcopal Church is a low stone structure, having a handsome rectory adjoining. It is finished with much taste and elegance, and the parish has a hards and westly congregation. Archideacon W. W. Kirkby is the rector. The Prothylerian Church, in charge of the Rev. Isc. G. W. Knox, is also a stone building, having a min agire. The congregation is also a large one. The church of the Releamer is the Roman Catholic house of worship, which was created in 18/2, and which is an ornament to the village. The Rev. J. T. Harry is the priest in charge of the Rev. V. T. Pray.

A free circulating library and free reading-room association was organized it. 1887, The reading-room association was organized in 1887, and the library, which has about the thousen'd bound volumes, is well partronized. The following were the original officers. William H. Parsons, pr. president, James Floy Quin, vice-president, Regimal Officers. William H. Parsons, pr. president, and Wilbur C. Lyon the librarian.

The place relates in the persession of a first-cass school, which is presided over by John S. Sprague, who has six capside assistants.

PRIDE IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

A volunteer fire department, of which Jacob Woerner is the chief, is a source of pride to the inhabitants of Rye. It has a powerfu, engine, a hook and ladder truck and a hose reed with 1,000 feet of hose. "With a department as good as ours," said a Rye clitzen, "and volunteers as ready to do work as ours are, the fire dangers become small and our 1,000 inhabitants feet safe on that score. There are a number of clute and social organizations in Rye, the principal one being the Apawamis Club. This club was founded several years "GRAND Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilson, Toledo, C. E. Connelly, Ringhamiton, Charles Greene, Chicago, W. G. Crawford, Washington; C. A. Leland, Eldorado, Kan.; F. Waish, S. Strong, London.

CHRIST'S CHURCH.

The American Yacht Club, which has its fine clubc.ub, although many of Rye's representative citiappointments and delightfully situated, and there are good anchorage and shelter for small craft in the inlet and equally safe anchorage in front of the lubhouse for the largest steam yachts, of which there are always a number at the club. The present officers of the cub are: John H. Flagler, commodore; Caleb G. Evans, vice-commodore; Charles T. Wills, rear-commodore; Thomas L. Scovill, secretary; W. P. Allen, treasurer; Dr. Charles I. Pardee, fleet surgeon; Charles H. Haswell, measurer, and George W. Magee, U. S. N., consulting engineer.

house one passes the fine houses of H. D. B. Parsons, F. R. Laurence, Mrs. George W. Hall, Mrs. Van Wagner, W. H. Catlin, W. A. Read and Jordan L. Mott.

The water at Rye offers bathing as well as boating facilities, and Rye Beach is considered one of the most pleasant and safe bathing places along the Sound. Beck's Hotel is directly on the beach and has become known for its good bathhouses, boating accommodations, billiard, bowling and shoating arrangements, and its desirability as an outing place. But Beck's is known chiefly for its Rhode Island clambakes and shore dinners, and although the season is not yet fairly open parties have been booked for nearly every day up to September 20.

A smaller summer resort, near Beck's, is Edwards's Beach Hill.

Oakanil Beach is another of the popular bathing places. The accommodations are of a primitive kind. There is no pretence at display, but the best people of the place visit the beach and enjoy its luxurhous advantages. The model farm of Joseph Park, the senior member of the firm of Park & Tilford, with is massive stone walls and artistic gateways, its broad pastures and gardens, its woods and its faultless drives, is one of the places which the people of Rye delight to point out to the visitor. To the wheelman, Mr. Park has been a benefactor, because it was through his efforts and to a great extent by his means that the roads about Rye reached their present state of perfection. Among the more prominent mansions along the line of the post road and its main branches between Rye and Mamaroneck are those of E. M. Fulton, E. M. Fulton, Ir. the James M. Ives place. William H. Parsons, John Peck, A. Wiggin, Richard Cushion, the David Mead place, T. B. Peck, A. L. Bush, James D. Halstend, D. S. Cowles, Mrs. S. B. Cowles, Henry Morris, J. E. Cowles, Mrs. S. B. Cowles, Henry Morris, J. E. Cowles, Mrs. S. B. Cowles, Henry Morris, J. E. Cowles, Mrs. S. B. Cowles, Henry Morris, J. E. Cowles, Stuyvesant Waynright, S. R. MacLean, Frank Daniels, Mrs. Meirsmith, J. B. Putnam, Dr. E. N. White, A. W. Parsons, William H. W. and Mayo Wainright.

Among those nearer Harrison are William Mathews, W. H. May, Jr., John Pool, Robert R. Willets, the Charles Park place Carence Day and John Drake.

The Rye Seminary is an educational institute for young women, which has been established since i

WHICH WEALTH SHOULD BE PUT AND RE-

"Dives and Lazarus," the Rev. Dr. David J. Burrell, at the Marble Collegiate Church, Twenty-ninth-st, and Fifth-ave., took occasion to refer to the trial of the suit brought by William Laidlaw against Russell Sage, and also to the recent myslyn. Dr. Burrell said that during the trial of the Laidlaw-Sage suit Mr. Choate used the parable of the rich man and the beggar with great effect.
"The parable," said Dr. Burrell, "does not mean that wealth of itself is bad, or that poverty at all times is grace. Nor does it mean that all the rich are scoundrels, satisfied only to hell's fire from the fact that they have wealth. Neither does it guarantee seats in paradise to all the poor. I have known many rich men, many millionaires, who have used their great abundance of riches for the their wealth as the Rible directs that it should grace. The poverty which is begotten of indolence and vice is an abomination in the eyes of God.

GUESTS AT THE LEADING HOTELS.

The place relates in the p session of a first-class school, which is presided over by John S. Sprague, who has six capable assistants.

PRIDE IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

A volunteer fire department, of which Jacob Woerner is the chief, is a source of pride to the

P. Waish, S. Strong, London.

ROFFMAN J. E. Quina, Toledo; Joseph B. Hughes, Hamilton, Ohio, W. H. Richards, A. Miller, F. E. Mandel,
A. Meyer, Chicago; William Decker, Kingston; D. M.
Burks, San Francisco.

HOLLAND W. F. Keep, William H. Moore, Chicago; A. Stern, San Francisco, James B. Benson, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Park, Asheville, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steinert, Providence, W. H. Campbell, Clu-cinnati, William F. Graves, St. Paul; J. H. Stewart,

Pittsburg; H. H. Perkins, Jr., Warren, Ohio, NETHERLAND-Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Ellis, Cleve-land, L. C. Kranthoff, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cobend, Petersburg, Va.; M. E. Ingolis, W. R. Johnson, Cincinnati; C. H. Roser, Findlay, Ohio, Henry Mordecal, New Orleans; N. E. Reid, Mrs. Reid and family, New-

PARK AVENUE HOTEL C E Schoellkonf, Kansa City, H. Schoellkopf, Jr., Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Frank-lin Ames, Henry Lope, Troy; J. F. Thomas, Utica; A. S. Simmons, H. M. Eruce, Cohoes; Mrs. A. H. Goss, Cincinnati, Miss M. W. Goss, Washington; Mrs. M. T. Ames, Mrs. Seeley and Miss Collum, Chicago.

PLAZA—C. B. Tedcastle, Henjamin Marshal, Syracuse,

L. Anderson, Old Point, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. BAVOY F. B. Peabody, Chicago; John W. Williams, Boston, J. W. Williams, Baltimore, Peter Rogers, Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. W. Gordon Kellegs, London. ST. JAMES C. H. Stevenson, Albany; the Rev. and

Mrs. A. S. Glessner, Cumberland, Md.; Gustavis H. Wald, Richard H. Wald, Cincinnati; J. A. Doty, Toronto; M. Wilkens, Mrs. Wilkens, Charlotte, N. C.; A. M. Sweet, Richmond, Va.; S. B. Evans, St. Louis, STURTEVANT-W. E. Tyler, Henry Martin, Roston; J. E. Wilson, New-Orleans; Mr and Mrs. J. T. Matthews, New-Haven; R. S. Fletcher, Washington; J. E. Walker, U. S. A., T. M. Dick, U. S. A., H. T. Jones, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Reed, Honesdale, Penn., Theodore G. Emple, Wilmington, N. C.

CRUEL TREATMENT OF A BULL. Syracuse, N. Y., June 23.-Special Officer Casey, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, yesterday arrested Pries Parsons, an Otlsco farmer, for a case of cruel treatment of an unruly bull, which persisted in knocking down fences. Parsons sewed up the eyelids of the un-fortunate animal with two pieces of heavy wire, sharpened at the points, which he inserted as a physician would a needle. After he had taken three or four stitches in each eyelid he twisted the ends of the wire together, and in this condi-tion the bull was found, with his eyes terribly swollen and bleeding. The Justice of the Peace at South Onondaga let Parsons off with a pairry fine of $10.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

GREAT BRITAIN'S LAND-GRABBING CAM-PAIGN IN THE NORTHWEST.

THE TERMS OF THE TREATY OF 1823 REPUDIATED -MAP OF THE REGION BETWEEN AND

AROUND PORTLAND AND

BEHM CHANNELS. The chief geographical feature of the dispute be tween this country and Great Britain over the boundary line between Alaska and British Columbia is indicated on the accompanying map. The boundary was delimited with much detail by the treaty concluded in 1825 between Russia—then the cowner of Alaska—and Great Britain, as follows:

The line of demarcation between the possessions of the high contracting parties upon the coast of of the high contracting parties upon the coast of the continent and the islands of America to the commencing from the southernmost point of the Commencing from the southernmost point of the lies in the parallel of M degrees 40 minutes north lies in the parallel of M degrees 40 minutes north lies in the parallel of M degrees 40 minutes north to the north along the channel called Portland to the north along the channel called Portland to the horth along the channel called Portland to the horth along the channel called Portland to the horth along the continent where Channel as far as the point of the continent where the second Western tour after July 4, and if the Boston the form men manage to come home in the lead, the rest of the teams might as well abandon the channel of the teams might as well abandon the channel to the form men manage to come home in the lead, the rest of the teams might as well abandon the channel to the form men manage to come home in the lead, the rest of the teams might as well abandon the channel to the form men manage to come home in the lead.

ON THE BASEBALL DIAMOND LOCAL BASEBALL AFFAIRS.

BOSTON SETTING A LIVELY PACE-GIANTS HAVE A HARD WEEK AHEAD OF THEM.

The Giants have a hard week ahead of them, and the prospects of bettering their present position during the next ten days to any remarkable extent does not look bright. Captain Doyle's men will tent does not look bright. Captain play in Boston to-day and to-morrow, and then play in Boston to-day and to-morrow, and then play in Boston to-day and to-morrow, and then jump over to Baltimore, where they are sche to play on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Then they turn their faces in this direction, crossing bate this last-mentioned point the line of demarcation shall follow the summit of the mountains situated parallel to the coast as far as the point of intersection of the 141st degree of west longitude (of the same meridian), and finally, from the said point of intersection, the said meridian line of the 141st degree, in its prolongation as far as the frozen ocean, shall form the limit between the Russian and British possessions on the continent of America.

The United States turnbased About The United States purchased Alaska in 1867, and thus acquired all the rights Russia had under that Great Britain recognized that fact, and treaty. Great Britain recognized that fact, and the British Admiralty chart from which this map is made distinctly indicates the boundary line along the centre of Fortland Channel. But a few years ago Canasta and then Great Britain arbitrarily changed the line on their maps, making it go up lich the Channel, and the British contention now is that when the treaty of 1825 said "Portland" it meant "Behm." The absurdity of this claim is patent especially in view of the fact that from 1825 to 1837 the Russians officially occupied and controlled the territory between the two channels without challense from Great Britain, and that United States officials did the same after 1857. United States troops were stationed at Fort Tongues, at the mouth of Portland Channel, soon after the purchase of Alaska in 1857 to about 1887, and customs officers were maintained there as late as 1859 meeting with no protest whatsoever from the Canaslian Government or any other Powers of the world.

The object of Great Britain in seeking to acquire this portion of Alaska is evident. It is enormously rich in gold, coal and other minerals, and forms the gateway of the overland route to the great basin of the Yukon River.

HIS PASTORATE BEGINS.

THE REV. F. M. GOODCHILD PREACHES HIS FIRST SERMON AT THE CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Rev. Frank M. Goodchild, who succeeds the Rev. Walter M. Walker as pastor of the Central Baptist Church, in West Forty-second-st., began his pastorate yesterday morning. There was a large congregation present to hear his first sor-mon. Mr. Goodchild took for his text the words "Thy kingdom come." He said in part:

"Thy kingdom come." He said in part:

I don't know of any text more appropriate for a pastor's first sermon than these. Thy kingdom come." The dream of an emptre as broad as the world has filled men's minds from the earliest days. Caesar, Napoleon, Alexander and others dreamed and fought for such an emptre. They never succeeded in realizing their dreams of this one vast emptre. They failed, theirs were but the efforts of men. In Cod's kingdom there will be realized such an emptre. He has promised it, and we pray for "Thy kingdom come." God calls the people in the pews to preach and to testify to His Gospel as well as the man in the pulpit. More persons can be saved by those in the pews than by the one in the pulpit if they will only put forth their best efforts. There are 1.20,000 persons in this city who are not church-goers. There is a field for labor in God's kingdom.

ALDRIDGE WAS NOT SO IGNORANT.

FAR FROM HAVING NO KNOWLEDGE OF MCLEL-LAND'S SUIT, HE MADE AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF IT

Albany, June 23 (Special).-When the suit was instituted last week by John W. McClelland, a clerk in the office of the Collector of Canal Statistics here, to compel James A. Roberts, the State Controller, to pay him his salary, although Governor Morton and the Civil Service Commissioners had declared by formal resolution that he was illegally appointed, the assertion was made by friends of George W. Abiridge, the Superintendent of Public Works, that he did not instigate the suit. Possibly they made this statement because they were conscious, if Mr. Aldridge was not, of the indecorous nature of his attitude of hostility to the policy of An examination of the legal papers filed by Mc-Clelland with Justice Herrick reveals, however, that Mr. Aldridge has a thorough knowledge of the suit and must support it, for he makes an affidavit to sustain McClelland's application for a writ of mandamus against Controller Roberts. In this affidavit the Superintendent makes the following interesting the Superintendent makes the following interesting declaration:

George W. Aldridge, being duly sworn, says: That I am the duly appointed Superintendent of Public Works of the State of New-York, and was such Superintendent of Fublic Works of the State of New-York on and prior to the 26th day of April, 1826. That as such Superintendent of Public Works I did, on the 26th day of April, 1826, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me under Section 9 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of New-York duly appoint John W. McClelland, the above-named relator, to the position of clerk to Collector of Canal Statistics at Albany, N. Y., at a sailary of $65 per month. That I made and issued a certificate and commission of the said appointment and which is on file in my office, and that a copy of same was on said day delivered to said relator, who thereupon qualified, entered upon the discharge of his duties as such clerk, and is now acting as such, and that a copy of said certificate and commission of appointment is hereto annexed and marked "A." That as appears by the affidavit hereto annexed, said John W. McClelland, relator as aforesaid, demanded that his salary for the month of May, 1895, and which became due and pay-able on the 1st day of June, 1895, be audited and paid by James A. Roberts, as Controller of the State of New-York, after said demand by John W. McClelland, relator as aforesaid, for the month of May, 1805.

The argument upon the application for a mandamus will be heard before Justice Herrick on Tues.

aforesaid, for the month of May, 1835.

The argument upon the application for a mandamus will be heard before Justice Herrick on Tuesday. Controller Roberts has written a letter to Elliu Root, seeking to engage him as counsel for the State in these proceedings, and Mr. Root, it is believed, will undertake the defence of the Controller, who is acting under instructions from Governor Morton and the State Civil Service Commissioners, that McCleiland was appointed without authority of law, not having passed any Civil Service examination, as required by the new Constitution.

for, barring accidents, the contest will be over to all intents and purposes.

Clubs Won Lost Fret. Clubs.

Boston 29 17 030 New York
Pittsburg 10 620 Clneinnari
Haltimore 25 18 501 Philadelphia
Cleveland 25 22 569 Washington
Chicago 50 23 566 St Louis
Brooklyn 28 22 542 Louisville... 26 23 25 23 25 23 27 27 29 27 27 34 GAMES TO-DAY.

Brooklyn vs. Philadelphia, at Eastern Park, Bro Washington vs. Baltimore, at Washington. Cleveland vs. Louisville, at Cleveland. Cincinnati vs. St. Louis, at Cincinnati. Chicago vs. Pittsburg, at Chicago.

ARRESTED FOR PLAYING BALL ON SUNDAY. Chicago, June 23.-The Sunday Observance League made good its threat to-day and arrested the mem-bers of the Chicago League ball team after the third inning of the game with Cleveland. President Hart told the five constables that he would submit quietly to arrest if the players were al-lowed to give bonds on the spot. This was agreed to, and Justice Frank A. Cleveland, of Norwood Park, before whom the warrants were sworn out, accepted M. Posner and E. Frank as securities for the players. Each man was held in $100 bonds until July 2, when the case will come up for trial. rants were also sworn out for Tebeau and McGann. These were not served, as George Tebeau was not These were not served, as George Tebeau was not on the grounds, and there is no such player with the club as McGann. Donovan, Cleveland's new catcher from the Vicksburg team, played for the first time to-day, proving himself an excellent backstop. The game was sharp throughout, the Colts hitting Knell with great ease and frequency. Sixteen of the seventeen runs were earned. Attendance, 13,900. The score.

St. Louis, June 23.-The Cincinnatis were beaten o-day by superior batting. Connor excelling all Foreman began pitching in the seventh inning, and Latham was sent to the bench by Ewing in the same inning for shirking a hot ball. Attendance, 5,000. The score:

Basehits—St. Louis II; Cincinnati 6. Errors—St. Louis 5; Cincinnati 2. Batteries—Foreman, Dwyer and Murphy; Staley and Peitz. Umpire—Keefe.

NOTES ABOUT PLAYERS.

Baltimore, June 23 (Special).-Manager Hanlon has signed Arlington Pond, the pitcher of the University of Vermont. He is twenty-two years of age, and has made a record among college pitchers. He has defeated Harvard, Yale, Brown and the Holy Cross team, letting them down with but seven hits. He has been a terror to college batsmen, and his record of strikeouts is a wonderful one. What he will do against League batsmen remains to be seen. He against League batsmen remains to be seen. He is said to be a fine fielder and a good batsman.

He will report July 1, and is expected to pitch in one of the games in New-York.
St. Louis, June 23.—Catcher Spies, of the Cincinnati Club, was yesterday sold to the Louisvilles for $600, and Catcher Merritt was sold to Pittsburg for a like consideration. Spies and Merritt report for duty to-morrow.
Fittsburg, June 23.—The Pittsburg Club yesterday suspended Catcher "Tom" Kinslow indefinitely and fined him $100 for insubordination. Catcher Merritt, of the Cincinnati Club, has been signed for the Pittsburg Club, and will report for duty in Chicago to-morrow.

A NEW MANAGER FOR THE BROWNS.

St. Louis, June 23.—Manager Buckenberger, of the Browns, was released to-day, and will cave here for Pitteburg to-morrow morning. The poor showing made by the Browns, who have never been above ninth place this season, caused President Von Der Ahe to think a change desirable. "Joe" Quinn will be made manager at a meeting of the directors to-morrow, and he will still play second base. The release of Buckenberger is sharply criticised by newspapers and patrons of the game. ONE WAY TO SER THE BOAT RACE.

The Knickerbocker Steamboat Company has de-Grand Republic make another trip this morning to the triangular boat race between Columbia, Corneil and University of Pennsylvania. The time and place of departure are as follows: Brooklyn Bridge Dock, 9:15 a. m.; Battery Pier, 9:30 a. m.; West Twenty-second-st. Pier, 19:30 a. m.; Yonkara, 11:39 a. m., and Newburg, 2:30 p. m.

THEY WILL ESCORT THE ARCHBISHOP.

A committee consisting of Carl V. Fornes, chairman; Judge Joseph Daly, Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, George A. Arthur and Charles E. Phillips, are arranging for a distinguished escort to Archbishop Corrigan on his journey to Platisburg, where he will open the coming session of the Catholic Summes School. Invitations have been sent to the most prominent Catholics in the city to join the escort, which will leave Pier No. 41, North River, Wednesday, July 3, at 6 p. m.

of John DATMEAL Hequals in digestible nourishment 3 of ordinary oatmeal.

West 14th St. CO"RELIABLE" CARPETS UNUSUAL BARGAINS TO-DAY

In Fine Imported Oriental Rugs. 6 ft. 4 in.x9 ft. 2 in. Khiva . . . $28.00 8 ft. 6 in.x11 ft. Persian 42.00 10 ft. 7 in x10 ft. 9 in. Ant. Persian . 65.00

oft. 10 in.x12 ft. 9 in. Herez . . . 70.00 Color blendings and designs highly artistic, and prices below anything ever yet given. A grand panorama of textile beauties of surpassing interest well worth examina-

Furniture in great variety at lowest prices. CASH OR CREDIT OWPERTHWAIT & C. 104, 106 and 108 West 14th St.

NEAR 6TH AV. Brooklyn Stores: Flatbush Av. near Fulton St

to the entrance to Oakhurst. On both sides are a rassed in describing them as separate entities. dense woods, broken here and there by cultivated in characterizing each by itself the right and left spots, and by an occasional little old house which halves of a man." The same postoffice and the same railroad station serve the two places. They have one continuous street, which runs across the bridge over the creek, which is the dividing line. looks as if it were waiting to be torn down so that a fine building, like those further up the road might be put up in its place. Great bowlders can be seen between the trees, suggestive of glacial

The churches draw worshippers from both sides of the Mamaroneck River, and the storekeepers de-pend on both sides for their trade. When the place shows the hand of the landscape artist, who has made the best possible use of the superior material is incorporated, a consummation to which many look forward with impatience, the twin places may be made the best possible use of the superior material given him by nature. An esplanade flanked on either side by massive bluestone walls faces a rustic ecene in which a sparkling waterfall is the central piece. Giant vases with blooming plants placed near the falls show where man has helped nature in the decorations of the sylvan spot. The explanade is divided by a garden-like strip which runs through the roadway to the waters edge, nearly a mile away. Oakburst is a tract of land of about 150 acres, owned by Frederick Bonner and Alexander Taylor, ir, it has been improved and divided into building lots of from two to four acres, and, besides the main driveway from the highway, is intersected by well-constructed streets. It has a fine water front with never less than seven feet of water, which would make it a good yacht landing place. There are still other treats made one The village proper is a clean, smart-looking place. Its stores display well-selected lines of goods, and the merchants do their utmost to keep trade within the village limits, and to prevent shoppers from going to New-York. The population is about 2,500, and the manufacturing industries which have sprung up will probably attract more, and make the place in time, not only a pleasant residence town, but a business centre. The wall-paper company which has its works in the village gives steady employment to about 299 hands, and about half that number are employed by Robert Soltau & Co. in their rubber works. The village has an electric plant, which also gives employment Soltau & Co. in their rubber works. The village has an electric plant, which also gives employment to a number of men.

There are two banks in the place. The Union Savings Bank of Westchester County has the following officers: Bradford Rhodes, president; Samuel G. Purdy and D. G. Gately, vice-presidents; Thomas J. Meighan, secretary; Reuben G. Brewer, treasurer, and Jonathan Carpenter, William H. Stiles, Thomas Halstead, William A. Boyd, C. F. Griffon, B. C. Meighan, Thomas Brewer, David F. Britt, Spencer H. Cona, Richard C. Cornell, Dennis C. Gately and Joseph H. Melaughlin, trustees.

The Mamaroneck Bank does business in the same building with the Savings Bank.

Six mails are received daily at the postoffice, and as many are sent out. James A. McDonald is the postmaster. There are two newspapers in the place. Chorles Nutt is the Editor of "The Paragraph," which is an independent sheet, and appears every Saturday. "The Register" is Democratic, and is edited by W. E. Peters, Among the town officers are: Charles M. Baxter, Supervisor, John C. Fairchild, Town Clerk, and Joseph H. McLaughlb, J. P. Canty, William A. Royd and A. M. Perrin, Justices of the Peace. The Fire Department of this place is highly spoken of by the citizens. John W. Goodwin is the chief engineer and Samuel McAndles assistant. W. D. Dayman is the secretary of the department, and Charles Merritt the treasurer. S. J. Preston is at the head of the excellent high school, which is under the control of the Board of Education, of which J. H. McArdle is the president, Across the bridge, at Riye Neck, there is another good school, presided over by F. E. Bell. The president of the board is George L. Lvon.

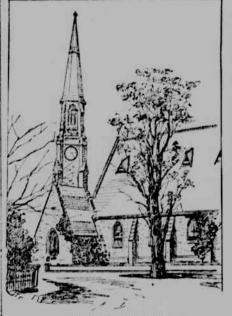

CHURCHES AND THEIR PASTORS.

CHURCHES AND THEIR PASTORS. Only three denominations are represented by churches in Mamaroneck. St. Thomas's parish was churches in Mamaronece. St. Homas's parish was founded by the De Lancey family, and William Heathcote de Lancey, born at Mamaroneck, who became Bishop of Western New-York, held service here for the first time in 1814, and with the aid of his father and Peter Jay Munroe founded the parish of St. Thomas. The frame church which was built in 1823 served the congregation for sixty years, when James M Constable and his children built the present beautiful edifice as a memorial to Mrs. Constable.

The church is an early English Gothic structure, cup and a money prize. On the way to the club-

clusively by members of the Society of Friends, and the attendance at their meetings was large, and the place graw slowly, valuing the bound to have the place satisfied to have ago for social and literary purposes. It has been highly prosperous and its membership list includes the names of the best people in the place. The club occupies the fine old house which was formerly the home of Daniel C. Kingsland. WHERE STEAM YACHTS ARE AT THE FRONT.